Islam underlines service to humanity as a core pillar of a peaceful society. The Ahmadiyya Muslim community actively engages in serving society and whether it is through raising funds for charitable causes or by volunteering in local community projects we are keen to play our part for the good of mankind.

For further information about our community visit our websites at:

www.LoveForAllHatredForNone.org
www.aliislam.org
(the official website of our global community)
www.mta.tv or Sky channel 787
(the website and our 24-hour global television station)

Working with local communities we help to keep Britain tidy with litter picking campaigns held throughout the UK.

Ahmadi Muslim youth take an active interest in environmental issues and have planted more than 3,000 trees in Britain in the past two years.

In sunshine, rain or snow we provide help wherever we can be it visiting the sick and elderly in hospitals and care homes, providing food and provisions for the homeless or clearing autumn leaves and winter snow a helping hand is always there.

I am pleased to send my best messages for your campaign promoting the principles of ‘love for all and hatred for none’. I know the principles behind the campaign – including respect for each other and a desire to build community cohesion – are important for Ahmadiyya communities and I would like to congratulate you on your work.

(Rt.Hon. David Cameron MP)
Since its inception in 1889, the Ahmadiyya Muslim community has been leading a global effort to revive the true, peaceful message of Islam as taught by the Holy Prophet Muhammad (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him). This revival of the true Islamic teachings was initiated by the founder of the community, Hadhrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad (peace be upon him), who said, “The mission for which I have been appointed is to remove that growing gap in the relationship between God and His creation and replace it once again with the relationship of love and sincerity; and cause religious wars and discord to end by allowing the truth to manifest itself, and thus lay the foundation for peace”.

The Holy Qur’an states: “…show kindness to parents, and to kindred, and orphans, and the needy, and to the neighbour that is a kinsman and the neighbour that is a stranger, and the companion by side, and the wayfarer…” (Ch. 4:V.37)

Belief in One God
All prophets and all religions were sent from the same source – the One God Who is the Creator of all and Who continues to communicate with mankind. In Arabic He is called Allah but whatever term is used in various religions according to Islam they all refer to the same single God.

Belief in all prophets
God sent His prophets to guide people to Him and to create peace amongst mankind. Islam requires Muslims to believe in all prophets without exception and to refer to them with respect and honour.

No compulsion in religion
Everybody is free to believe, practise, preach and follow any faith of his or her choice.

Our motto: Love for All and Hatred for None
We serve humanity in many ways including a wide range of activities that provide disaster relief, medical facilities, energy, education and self-help programmes across the world. Some Key Islamic Principles

Loyalty
Freedom
Equality
Respect
Peace

The principle to which we adhere is that we have kindness at heart for the whole of mankind.

The mission for which I have been appointed is to remove that growing gap in the relationship between God and His creation and replace it once again with the relationship of love and sincerity; and cause religious wars and discord to end by allowing the truth to manifest itself, and thus lay the foundation for peace.

This is because of the teachings of our Prophet [Muhammad] (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) who said:

“...every Ahmadi who lives in Great Britain is an extremely loyal citizen of the country and loves it; and this is because of the teachings of our Prophet [Muhammad] (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) who instructed us that love of one’s country is an integral part of one’s faith.”

(peace be upon him)

“Remember that the strength of Europe lies in it remaining united and together as one. Such unity will not only benefit you here in Europe, but at a global level will be the means for this Continent to maintain its strength and influence.”

Martin Schulz MEP and President of the European Parliament welcomed His Holiness to the European Parliament.

Capitol Hill, Washington DC, USA

“...Islam has drawn our attention to various factors for peace. It requires absolute justice. It requires truthful testimony to always be given. It requires that our glances are not cast enviously in the direction of the wealth of others. It requires that the developed nations put aside their vested interests, and instead help and serve the less developed and poorer nations with a truly selfless attitude and spirit. If all of these factors are observed, then true peace will be established.”

(peace be upon him)